

Joint CIBD/BFBI Midlands Sections Annual Engineering Symposium:

Thursday 10th April 2025: 12:30 Noon Arrival

Briggs of Burton PLC

“The Bones of Brewing”

The 2025 Annual Joint CIBD/BFBI Engineering Symposium organised by the Midlands Sections will be held at Briggs of Burton PLC on Thursday 10th April 2025.

Four papers will be presented on the themes below. Briggs of Burton Plc, who are experts in this particular field, are hosting the event and will provide a cold buffet at the end of the papers.

There is ample parking available on site.

Agenda for the day

12:30: Arrival, registration

13:00 1st session to be chaired by the IBD

Session 1 – John Round, CIBD
Requirements for Materials of construction in breweries

Session 2 - Martyn Ralph
CO2 Recovery Plant for Small & Craft Brewers

14:30 2nd session to be chaired by the BFBI

Session 3 – Andrew Mieleniewski, Head of Technical Sales – Briggs of Burton PLC
Electrifying Your Drinks Production

Session 4 – Speaker to be determined, NIRAS
Energy Efficiencies Within The Brewhouse

Final Plenary Q&A followed by buffet before heading into Burton to sample the best Burton pubs have to offer.

To book your seat at this “must attend” session, please contact ruth.evans@bfbi.org.uk or johnbround@aol.com

